

A TRINITY OF CONNECTION, INSPIRATION & EXPLORATION

At the heart of Tokyo's Azabudai Hills development – a vibrant hub of nature, culture and art - Janu opened in March 2024 marked an energising new chapter in hospitality. The only hotel within the urban village, Janu Tokyo introduces 122 guest rooms and suites, eight dining and socialising venues and a 4,000 sqm wellness centre. A fitting flagship.

LOCATION

Janu Tokyo finds its home in Azabudai Hills, an innovative development by the world's greatest architectural visionaries, featuring Japan's tallest skyscraper designed by Pelli Clarke & Partners and, at ground level, one of the greenest urban environments by Thomas Heatherwick. Thirty years in the making, this dynamic new neighbourhood thrives in perfect synergy with Janu's values, seeking to bring people together and uplift the soul. Janu Tokyo is located on the first to 13 floors of Residence A Tower, with interiors designed by Jean Michel Gathy of Denniston Architects.

GETTING THERE

- 90 minutes by car from Narita International Airport
- 30 minutes by car from Tokyo International Airport (Haneda Airport)
- 5-minute walk from Kamiyacho (Hibiya Line) and 3-minute walk from Roppongi Itchome (Namboku Line) Metro Station

SOULFUL SPACES

On floors six to 13, Janu Tokyo's guest rooms and suites start at 55 sqm, presenting timeless Asian-inspired interiors with contemporary European detailing. A strong focus on minimalism and symmetry encourages comfort and creates a harmonic balance of energy. Most offer their own private balconies immersing guests in the city skyline or Azabudai Hills' surrounding greenery, and many also connect with neighbouring rooms and suites, creating a seamless sense of belonging for groups and families travelling together. All enjoy large bathrooms with double vanities, rain showers and bespoke soaking tubs.
